

President Roosevelt Has Proposed A Fragmentary, Stop Gap Extension of NRA

NEW FRENCH CABINET IS OVERTHROWN

Laval And Bouisson Refuse To Form Government

By John Evans
Copyright, 1935.
The Associated Press.
Paris, June 4.—(AP)—Apparently determined to have the nation decide on the business-control issues raised by the supreme court, President Roosevelt today proposed a fragmentary, stop-gap extension of the NRA.

Announcing that an agreement had been reached with Democratic congressional leaders on the proposal, the president outlined plans for a code-less, "skeleton" organization that would keep business statistics and require that government contractors live up to minimum wage and maximum hour standards.

Mr. Roosevelt emphasized throughout a round of extraordinary conferences with cabinet and senate and house leaders that this projected shadow of the old blue eagle machine would not seek to enforce the working conditions of fair trade practices that existed under the code structure abolished by the supreme court's decision of Monday before last.

Indicating that the administration would seek to prove that conditions under the old NRA were better than those which would exist without it, Mr.
Roosevelt disclosed that one of the duties of the fragmentary NRA would be to list in parallel comparative columns statistics on industrial operations with and without the codes.

To newsmen who jammed every inch of his office late in the day, Mr.
Roosevelt noted that the national labor relations board and subordinate boards for settling labor disputes had been abolished by the court's decision.
Quickly he gave inferential approval to the Wagner labor disputes bill.

Also to meet the problem created by the lapse of T-A—the labor section of the NRA act—he called for a $500-000 appropriation to enable the secretary of labor to conduct additional mediation and conciliation activities and thus take over a small portion of the work of the boards which are abolished.

Mr. Roosevelt, apparently in cheerful mood, parried all questions as to plans for additional legislation supplementing the measures he proposed today. He was asked numerous questions regarding such steps, including one as to whether he intended proposing a constitutional amendment.
His only reply to this was that that was all the news there was today, with emphasis upon the word today.

While deputies inside the chamber exchanged rumors of imminent dismissal, the 60-year-old Bouisson, who led the coalition cabinet, went to the chamber, went down to defeat on precisely the same issue that brought Premier Pierre-Etienne Fandini's overthrow last week.

The 60-year-old Bouisson, who presided sternly over many parliamentary battles during nine years as president of the chamber, went down to defeat on precisely the same issue that brought Premier Pierre-Etienne Fan-
dini's overthrow last week.

Named as defendants in the suit, brought by the Metropolitan Trust company, holders of a $500,000 trust deed, were Fowler and Pitt Stillman McCormick, Muriel McCormick Hubbard and her husband, Elsie Dyer Hubbard, Matilde McCormick and her husband, riding master, husband, Max Oscar, Edwin D. Krenn, Edward Dato and his wife, Muriel Noon Dato.

The petition charged that there was $100,000 in delinquent taxes and penalties owing and asked the court to order the defendants to pay that sum.

ALLOCATE FUNDS
Washington, June 4.—(AP)—Secretary Wallace today apportioned $400-000 among the states, the district of Columbia, and Hawaii for construction of highways, roads, streets and grade crossing eliminations as a part of the $4,000,000 works program.

Allocation of $200,000,000 for highways, roads and streets and $200,000-000 for elimination of grade crossings was made.

Weather
For Jacksonville and vicinity—Generally fair and cooler weather is predicted for today with increasing cloudiness and warmer weather to follow on Thursday.

FLOODS SWEEP INTO MISSOURI; 500 ARE DEAD

Raging Waters Spread Destruction Over Wide Area

By The Associated Press.
Floods, already charged with more than 500 deaths and upwards of $25-000,000 damage in western states and in Mexico, rolled relentlessly last night (Tuesday) over rich regions of Kansas, Missouri and California.

The raging waters spread destruction and threatened further loss of life over a widening area.

The big Missouri hit new crests.
It passed its 1927 level. It promised to equal the disastrous proportions of the flood of 1903.

The smaller Kaw, carrying the tide which swept southward out of Nebraska into Kansas by way of the Republican river, raved eastward toward Kansas City—and confluence with the swelling Missouri.

Army engineers and city officials feared the full crest of the Kaw, roaring into the Missouri, would bring flood conditions at Kansas City similar to 1903. Industrial sections were inundated then with heavy losses.

The threatened portions of Kansas City include the stockyards and buildings, numerous industrial plants and the Kansas City livestock exchange.

National guardsmen, regular army men and police rushed ahead of the surging crest in Missouri and Kansas. They helped farmers and townspeople in the lowlands to higher ground.

Prompt warnings were credited with preventing great loss of life.

Still, death estimates already had pushed toward 500. The dead included 400 persons drowned in Mexico and more than a score in Colorado and Wyoming last week as well as victims in Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska.

Damage in Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri alone was not officially in the neighborhood of $20,000,000.

Clyde E. Stone
Is Chief Justice
Of Supreme Court

Succeeds Judge Norman L.
Jones, Of Carrollton,
As Court Head

Springfield, Ill., June 4.—(AP)—Justice Clyde E. Stone of Peoria, only republican member of the Illinois supreme court, today became chief justice, succeeding Norman L. Jones of Carrollton.

Justice Stone assumed his new duties at the opening of the June term of the court this afternoon. After several motions were heard, the justices went into conference to begin study of a comparatively light docket.

Among the cases which may be actued upon this term are:

CRIMINAL CODE RETAINS GRAND JURY CLAUSE

Committee Votes Not To Abolish Old
System

Springfield, Ill., June 4.—(AP)—The house judiciary committee today voted to retain the grand jury system which was abolished in the initial draft of the proposed criminal code. It has been considering for several months.

So much opposition to the abolition of the grand jury and the substitution for it of a board of inquiry had been aroused—many county bar associations and individual attorneys having protested the change—that proponents of the code agreed to its retention in the hope that support for other features of the bill would be obtained.

The committee, however, was not disposed to report the bill favorably even after it had decided to retain the grand jury.

A motion for such a report was defeated 13 to 7.

This, however, was not taken by the bill's proponents as an indication that it would not later be reported favorably. A number who voted against a report at this time said the measure was too important for the house to consider in the month remaining.

R. J. Branson, Centrist, Republican, was one of those. He said:

"This bill is too important; it includes too much. I doubt if anybody knows what it is all about. It is not fair to send it to the house at this time. Many good features are contained in the proposed code and it also has many bad ones. It is now too late for the house to give the bill careful consideration, especially with the calendar congested as it is. The proposed code should go over until another session."

Harry McCaskin, Rock Island Republican, attacked the code, saying, "A man can't turn around without violating the law the way this code is written."

After the motion to report favorably had been defeated the committee decided to have the bill printed with all the amendments it had adopted written in so that members might consider the draft in its present form.

NAMED PRESIDENT
New York, June 4.—(AP)—John E.
O'Donnell was today selected as president of Paramount pictures, Inc., the newly reorganized Paramount Public Corp. Adolph Zukor, former president, was chosen chairman of the board of directors.

CHARGED WITH SLAYING
Edwardsville, Ill., June 4.—(AP)— Herschel Barger, Woodlawn, was indicted today by a Madison county grand jury for the slaying of Truman Navy, 25, Alton, ten days ago.

The shooting climaxed a domestic quarrel after an outburst of the two men's families. Nave, suffering from shotgun wounds in the head and chest, was taken to a hospital at Alton by Barger, who then surrendered to police. Nave died the following day.

MARE KICKS BOY
Muskegon, Okla., June 4.—(AP)—A mare, enraged when a small boy fed her colt, attacked him with flying feet and physicians said tonight the boy may die.

The boy, William Leon Hoyt, 13, son of O. V. Hoyt, farmer, was kicked Saturday.

HITLER NAVAL PROGRAM GIVEN GREAT BRITAIN

Reich's Fleet Would Be Brought Up To 400,000 Tons

By Albert W. Wilson
Associated Press Foreign Staff London, June 4.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler's special naval delegation laid before the British government today the preliminary draft of Hitler's program for building Germany's navy to 85 per cent the size of the French and 35 per cent of England's.

This would bring the Reich's fleet up to an estimated 400,000 tons, but it was understood the British government would try to persuade down the figure.

The British fleet in home waters will total only 301,000 tons. It was pointed out, even with the improvements planned, the British fleet of the near future would be smaller.

It was authoritatively reported the German delegation, headed by Joachim Von Ribbentrop, Hitler's minister of foreign affairs, was named ambassador extraordinary for the conference, claimed the Reich's effective post-war tonnage includes only 55 10,000-ton pocket battleships, 55 8-100-ton cruisers, 12 destroyers and 12 submarines. Of the total tonnage of 163,000, it was stated, 64,000 tons are in pre-war ships which will be scrapped.

Well-informed German sources here said the German fleet authorized Von Ribbentrop to accept limits of 35,000 tons for battleships and 10,000 tons for cruisers, the limitations imposed by treaty on present world naval powers. Existing treaties expire at the end of next year.

France and Italy, expected refusal to accept any limits on either the size or number of submarines and destroyers probably will be duplicated by Germany, it was indicated.

St. John Simon, British foreign secretary, welcomed Von Ribbentrop and his colleagues at this morning's initial session, which was private.

Despite the failure of the Anglo-American-Japanese talks last winter, the British are firmly resolved that some sort of world conference must be held this year. They would like to see Germany brought into an agreement with the five big naval powers.

Two Men Wounded
In Sabre Duel
London, June 4.—(AP)—A Daily Express dispatch from Budapest said Count Balint Szecsenyi, Hungarian aristocrat, and Victor Stein, leading Jewish business man, were both severely wounded today in a fierce sabre duel.

The duel, held in a secret rendezvous at dawn, saw both combatants carried from the field of honor on stretchers, the Express reported.

The count emerged with a deep head wound while Stein's nose was almost severed, the story said.

BONUS ISSUE TO BE TOSSED INTO 1936 CAMPAIGN

Cash Payment Drive Is Postponed Until Next Congress

By Nathan Robertson.
Associated Press Staff Writer.
Washington, June 4.—(AP)—The politically potent bonus issue was hurled squarely into the 1936 national election campaign today by a decision of outstanding congressional advocates to delay their cash payment drive until the next session of Congress.

Leaders of the Patman inflationary bloc in the House and Senate announced after a joint session that instead of compromising in an effort to get immediate action, they would carry the issue to the country in an effort to win full payment at the next session.

Their decision spelled out at least a temporary victory for President Roosevelt, who appeared personally before a joint session of Congress to deliver a veto of the new money Pat-man bill. The veto had been quickly over-ridden by the House but sustained in the Senate by a nine vote margin.

It was a present victory not only over the bonus forces, but over the inter-twined inflation bloc which had used the Patman bill as a vehicle for the drive to get more money into circulation. Prominent at the conference today were Senator Borah (R., Ida.), and others more interested in the monetary issue than in the bonus question.

In view of the agreement today congressional leaders saw little chance for revival of the bonus question at this session of Congress. Senator Clark (D., Mo.), who led the fight for the American Legion's cash payment plan, was not a participant, but he said he was not going to offer anything "unless I have a reasonable chance of carrying it."

The Patmanists decided almost unanimously to let the issue go over until the next session of Congress feeling that they could muster the greatest strength in a campaign year when an election would follow quickly after the adjournment of Congress.

Old Age Pension
Bill Is Passed
By Legislature

Measure Provides $1 Day For Persons Over 65
Years Old

Springfield, Ill., June 4.—(AP)—With much oratory and no opposition, an old age pension bill was passed by the Illinois House of Representatives today and sent to the Senate for consideration during the late session rush of work.

The House voted 143 to 0 for the Prignano-Lennan-Collins bill to give $1 daily to persons 65 or older after next January 1 if they don't have other means of support.

The question of raising funds to pay the old age pensions was raised by the bill, but during the debate Governor Horner was described as being willing to call a special session to take care of financing.

In the unanimous roll call, many representatives took the floor to tell the crowded galleries that they approve of pension for the aged.

Representative Reuben G. Soderstrom, the Streator Republican who is president of the State Federation of Labor, took a leading part in the one-sided debate. He said the government favors the bill and has promised to call a special session if necessary to provide for financing.

To qualify for a pension, a person must have spent ten of the past fifteen years in Illinois and must not have property valued at more than $5,000. Administration would be through an old age pension board in the department of public welfare.

WOOD ALCOHOL BRINGS DEATH TO STUDENTS

Liquor Was Playfully Pilfered From Laboratory

Sherman, Tex., June 4.—(AP)—Wood alcohol playfully pilfered from a school laboratory brought death to two Austin college students and left eight others ill tonight. College heads began a thorough investigation.

Dead after drinking the stolen alcohol were Durwood Newman, 19, and James Garrett, 20, life-long friends and roommates of Athens, Tex.

Dr. E. B. Tucker, president of the college, said the boys admitted breaking into the chemistry building Sunday night and taking a quantity of methyl or wood alcohol.

Physicians said they could have saved the lives of both boys had they known the nature of their illness. The stricken lads insisted food—not wood alcohol—was responsible.

Authorities said other students, whose names were not divulged, had been treated on the possibility they had partaken of the wood alcohol.
They said the gallon container, from which the fluid had been taken, was labeled methyl alcohol, technical name for wood alcohol.

The container carried the usual precautionary warning and had not been completely emptied. Authorities said the students apparently brought their own containers.

The board of regents, convening in annual session promptly investigated the tragedy. Dr. Tucker said the prank "was against all college regulations."

The deaths cast gloom over the student body as senior students entered upon the eighth annual annual commencement exercises tonight. Both Newman and Garrett were sophomores and had started on freshman football and basketball teams last season.

Newman and Garrett were stricken in the supper hour at the "mess hall" last night. Their roommates, Wallace Johnson, said both boys alcohol-nauseated and suffering great pain, refused medical aid.

Johnson said he nursed his friends for several hours. Then he called Bill Pierce, football coach. The two youths were rushed to a hospital.

Early today Newman died in convulsion. Shortly after noon Garrett, who had been fighting death for several hours, succumbed.

Finally, participants in the prank admitted to college authorities they had taken the alcohol from the laboratory. Johnson said he had argued with his roommates in an effort to convince them that pure grain alcohol would not have been available to the laboratory.

County Board
Asks Sweitzer
To Pay; Resign

Demand $414,129 Allegedly Due The County

Chicago, June 4.—(AP)—The Cook county board late today voted unanimously to ask the resignation of Robert M. Sweitzer, for 25 years county clerk and now county treasurer, unless he pay $414,129 allegedly due the county.

Sweitzer tonight started for Chicago with his family from Terre Haute, Ind., where he attended graduation exercises at a private school for his daughter, Margaret, 21.

He has admitted without question that when he turned over his clerkship to his successor last December that funds were withheld, but said he would pay all when another audit was completed. He disagreed with some of the figures in the audit prepared by his successor. The board previously had agreed to give him until June 10 to straighten out the matter.

But late today it voted to ask Sweitzer to return the money or resign tomorrow. Meanwhile, the Herald and Examiner said it was understood that Washington authorities contemplated examining Sweitzer's income tax returns.

Louis L. Dent, an attorney for the insurance companies which furnished Sweitzer's $3,000,000 surety bond, said:
"At present the insurance companies which furnished Mr. Sweitzer's bond as trustees are not disposed to interfere or embarrass the county board. The officials of the companies have decided to stand aside and let the county carry out what it has in mind."

by the Progressive Miners of America was killed by the Illinois senate today.
The vote was eight for and 19 against.
A duplicate bill is before the house.
Senator Harry C. Stitt, Springfield Democrat, introduced the plan to give courts the right to settle labor recognition disputes by calling local Spokesmen for the progressive union said the bill would settle the Man Who Fled

With Dillinger
Is Recaptured

Chicago, June 4.—(AP)—Joseph Fox, 32, one of the ten convicts who resisted from the Indiana state penitentiary at Michigan City, September 26, 1933, with the aid of John Dil-linger, was under arrest here tonight.

The fugitive, ninth of the gang to be accounted for, surrendered without a struggle to police who seized him on a tip provided by postal inspectors.

A pistol was in his belt as Fox stepped from a house at 11434 South Harvard avenue, but he made no attempt to use it as police Sgt. Frank Quaker, Tom Prindle and Harry O'Connell closed in on him.

Police said their information regarding Fox' hideout came from postal inspectors J. R. McWhorter and J. J.
McCarthy, who recognized the resisted convict as they were searching for another man.

way decent, it is hard to concentrate on a lengthy legislative program. The country is in pretty good shape, and most people would like to see it left alone for awhile. They want to get back to work, and they want to get back home and see if their political friends are still intact. Some of their private business that needs their attention.

The people are beginning to get their breath, to recover from the shock of one new law after another, and to wish they might be allowed to enjoy their summer vacation without having to wonder whether they must face a new tax or a new restriction when they return to work.

A "must" that withal is not a popular thing just now, and that are beginning to feel that they are being asked to pay for the new legislation would stand more chance if "must" were substituted for "must." Otherwise some of the "must" bills may become musty before they are passed.

Useful Punishment

A prominent Lake Forest society girl was taken by officers to the Cook county hospital, where she was made to view the victims of motor accidents. That was her punishment, decreed by the court, for speeding and driving thru a red light. There are always accident victims in the hospital, and the young woman did not wait long for object lesson.

The punishment should prove salutary as well as humiliating. The careless of this driver might have suffered. Now that she has seen the wreckage wrought by recklessness behind a wheel, perhaps some heads will be kept cooler.

She persisted in her speeding and running of signals, more severe penalties should be given next time she gets a ticket from the traffic cop.

How To Progress

When the Nebraska state legislature adjourned the other day it established a landmark in the state's history—and, possibly, in the state's history of state government. In America, as well.

The legislature did this by the simple act of adjourning for the next session on June 10.

Nebraska has attempted to make its legislative branch as modern and as truly representative of the people as things in the state as the beautiful capitol in which the legislature meets. If the experiment works half as well as its proponents claim, the next decade will probably see it copied widely.

Topsy-Turvy Land

Things can get almost unbelievably topsy-turvy in this modern world, and nowhere is the fact illustrated quite as sharply as in the recent news dispatch from Akron, N. Y., telling how a week to teach the Seneca Indians how to make arrowheads out of flint.

The Senecas have established a center on the Tonawanda reservation for the revival of ancient tribal crafts. They are producing bows, beadwork, ornaments, and so on, just as their ancestors used to; but they have discovered that not an Indian in the tribe knows how to make arrowheads out of flint.

So white teachers have been called in, while men's books have been dug up, and the noble red men are re-learning one of the most important of their old, stone age crafts from white men!

So They Say

It would indeed be unfortunate if the advances in the science of medicine should be overbalanced by the death toll taken by the auto and other man-made machines.

—Dr. George C. Gille, famed surgeon.

Americans have a special method for attacking problems. They try to solve them most simply and most effectively with the least expenditure of money.

—Peter Bogdanoff, visiting Soviet official.

In France, it is love, amusement, business, money. Here it is love, amusement, love. See, see, love comes last. —Evelyn Roncney, visiting Polish Beyers star.

I've still got the third strike left in baseball. —Zwangelst Billy Sunday, stricken by heart attack.

Those "Must" Lists

With only a few weeks to go for the Illinois legislature and Congress before it gets hot, "must" lists of proposed legislation have become very popular. For the uninitiated a "must" list consists of certain bills the administration wants to have passed before adjournment. The implication is that lawmakers must pass these laws or they can't go home.

With summer coming on, and the weather man predicting a hot July, per egg—Joseph Stinson.

A Debtor's Feeling

Secretary Morgenthau checked the treasury's cash box and found $413,338,343.33 stacked up during the first months of the present financial year.

The government had spent $6,470,236.56 and had taken in only $3,338,343.33.

The big deficit, however, ran behind President Roosevelt's budget estimate, which forecast an excess of expenditures of $4,999,413.33 for the year ending June 30. This would have meant a monthly deficit of $407,000.

The gross public debt on May 31 was $28,633,333,228.

When a man checks his books and finds he is not in debt as much as he thought he was, there must be some feeling of satisfaction. Perhaps the realization that he is in debt is outweighed somewhat by the surprise his bookkeeping brings. But when the man is expanded into a nation, and the debt grows to 28 billions, what are the feelings of the debtor?

Perhaps they are rather composite, because of the vast number of individuals who have them. Some there are who give not a moment's thought to the vast debt, and never will. They take life as it comes and at what it costs, and worry little about its obligations.

There are others who look at the huge figures with little idea of what they mean, but with the tug feeling over it. They can pay the debt whatever it is. They feel that the benefits reaped in the present are sufficient reason for burdening the future. They predictament in which they may be placing their children mean nothing to them.

But there are others to whom a billion dollars means something. If the nation has it there is wealth; but if the nation owes it, there is chance for misery. They know that the national debt is paid, and that if the debt is not paid, and that if the debt is not paid, there will be nothing with which to pay them. They know that any empty treasury means bankruptcy. They may be rescued then, if occasionally they sound a warning or call for a halt in expenditures. But they stand a poor chance of being heard by the opportunists who are at present guiding the financial policy of the country.

The Wise And Foolish

When Volney Davis pleaded guilty to the Bremer kidnapping, he gave as his reason that he knew "you can't beat those G-men. The government knew more about it than I did."

For once in his life Davis made a wise decision. He was foolish to go in for crime, but he was wise in getting himself sent to prison before government guns sent him into eternity.

Danny Walsh was a bootlegger. Casagrande kidnapped him and held him for $40,000 ransom. After his release he did not quit his crimes. Later but enemies got him again and this time took him out to sea. They made him sit with his feet in a tub of soft cement until it hardened. They then threw him and the tub overboard. This man continued in crime until it brought its worst results. As he felt the concrete harder around his feet, he must have reflected that crime had brought him to a sorry end. He reached the bottom and stayed there.

Voters to Decide Water Plant Rehabilitation Issue at Polls June 11

One week from yesterday, Tuesday June 11, citizens will go to the polls to decide whether Jacksonville is to make extensive improvements in its water plant. All who are qualified to vote in a regular municipal election will be entitled to vote on this proposition in a special election, called thru an ordinance passed by the city council on April 22.

The ordinance authorizing the issue of $150,000 worth of bonds for improvements and extensions at the city water plant was passed by the city council March 18, after a year of consideration of the issue. The ordinance provides for a new sedimentation basin, the installation of two new Diesel engines to supply power for the pumps with necessary switchboards and other equipment, new pumping equipment, a new roof on the plant building, a new heating system, an additional clear water well, etc.

During consideration of the plan, the committee was after the following information: The work committee reported that the work could be done for much less than the $150,000 called for and recommended that the amount be cut down. It also recommended steam, instead of Diesel power.

The U. S. treasury says that expenditures are running a million and a half more than income. These laudable schemes given to graduates don't offer much encouragement outside of advising them to vote the straight republican ticket.

Flood Snaps Span Like Toy

Flood waters that roared down without warning in the wake of a cloudburst ripped this steel and concrete bridge from its base, flung it aside, and swept on to spread death and devastation through Colorado, then, merging with torrents from other streams, poured through four more states to take a toll counted in millions. This span was on the Denver-Colorado Springs highway across Pine creek, nine miles south of Monument, Colo.

NEW STATE MARK IN DAIRYING TOPS 25 YEAR RECORDS

Urbana, Ill.—Despite unprecedented drought and feed shortages last year, a new state standard which tops anything for the past 25 years was set up for milk and butterfat production by Illinois dairy cows. It is announced by Prof. C. S. Rhode and J. G. Cash, dairy specialists at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

The highest average production in the past 25 years' history of dairy herd improvement association work was made in 1934 by the 295 herds belonging to these associations. It is shown in the annual report which Rhode and Cash have just released on the work of these groups. The average for each cow was 2,740 pounds of milk and 324.5 pounds of butterfat.

During the same year the average production for all cows in the United States slipped to the lowest in 10 years. The estimated average production of all cows in the state is estimated at about 160 pounds of butterfat.

By comparison with these marks the new state record for the association herds is a tribute to the progress which the member dairymen are making toward more profitable production through better feeding, breeding and management of their herds. Rhode and Cash pointed out.

More than two-thirds, or 696, of the association herds had an average of 300 pounds or more of butterfat for each cow.

Out of all the 20,424 cows that were tested for milk and fat yield by the associations, the highest producer was a purebred Holstein in the herd of Mooseheart Farm, Mooseheart, that produced 12½ tons of milk and 834 pounds of butterfat during the year. The Eliwood & Nelson herd, DeKalb, had the second highest-producing cow; Mooseheart, third and fourth; Rock River Farm, Byron, fifth; Eliwood & Nelson, sixth; Mooseheart, seventh; N. G. Priess, Alton, eighth; Gahbeck & Lange, Woodstock, ninth, and Mooseheart, tenth.

17 Horses In English Derby

By Gayle Talbot

Associated Press Sports Writer
Epsom Downs, Eng., June 4.—(AP)—Famous Epsom Downs, where the first "Derby" was run in 1780, again swarmed with Gypsies and merry-go-rounds tonight as 17 three-year-olds awaited the start of tomorrow's classic.

The fact it's been called a "one horse race" with the Aga Khan's undefeated Bahram a 5 to 4 favorite failed to dim popular enthusiasm.

Long before the meeting opened today the infield was as full as the grandstands with the gay tents of the Gypsies and scores of caravans and other attractions which the race annually draws from all parts of the country.

For every bookmaker who is making Bahram a prohibitive favorite there are at least a hundred professional tipsters crying "I've got a horse," and offering the sure thing at low odds.

They like tens of thousands of other gamblers, planned to spend the night beside camp fires in order to catch the first horse who'll begin arriving from London soon after dawn.

Although King George has no Derby entry this year, he and the royal family are expected to see the race along with several hundred thousands of his subjects.

Upon the result of the race hinges the distribution of upwards of five million dollars to holders of tickets in the Irish Hospital and other sweepstakes.

The persons fortunate to draw a ticket on the winner will receive close to $150,000 each from the Irish sweepstakes.

Many racing men see a distinct possibility of the Aga Khan winning the first three places with Bahram, Hairan and Theft.

Only one other entry, Field Trial, one of Lord Astor's horses, is regarded as a real threat to the stable of the wealthy, retired Indian religious leader.

Lord Derby's Fairhaven and First Son are the other most popular choices.

The lone American-owned horse, Assinuation, entered by Mrs. Corlette Gifford, moved up a notch in the final call over at the Victoria club today but still was one of the outsiders at 33 to 1. Hairan was quoted at 11 to 2 today while Theft was held at 10 to 1.

The odds held against the others were: Field Trial, 100-7; Sea Beguist, 100-6; First Son, 20-1; Fairhaven, 28-1; Fairbairn, 35-1; Pry 2nd, 68-1; Plymouth Sound, 80-1; Japetus, 100-1; Peaceful Walker, 150-1; and Barbary and St. Botolph, 200-1.

LEADING BATTERS

By Gayle Talbot

Associated Press Sports Writer
St. Louis, June 4.—(AP)—The Cardinals' outfielder, was the big gun of baseball's big six yesterday. Cracking out four hits in as many trips to the plate he registered the only gain showed by the sextet as he sent his batting average soaring sixteen points to .365. Pepper Martin, his teammate, failed to get a hit for the first time in 24 games with the result his average fell from .391 to .380.

Street Caves In

Pressure from pumping and the high water stage of the Illinois river here at Beardstown are believed to have caused the sewer at Fourth and Jackson to cave in Sunday morning. The Beardstown Sanitary District is in charge of repairs and has employed the Central Illinois Public Service to use an eight inch pump to divert the water in the Fourth street main to the Third street main which can take care of the surplus until permanent repairs are made.

The Beardstown Sanitary District expects to wait until the river is at a lower stage to begin work. The Illinois river is now averaging a fall of about two tenths of a foot in twenty-four hours.

To make THIS BEER

yeast cells must be fed just as carefully as babies

Since the yeast discoveries of the great French scientist, Louis Pasteur, revolutionized brewing practices, we have learned many things. We know that to make good beer, yeast cells must be fed as carefully as we nourish our own infants. So, during the BUDWEISER fermentation period, we see to it that the yeast cells get just the right amounts of the various food values they need. Thus, BUDWEISER is always uniform—in flavor, bouquet, carbonation, color, clarity, and purity.

In the brewing of BUDWEISER, nothing is left to chance. By clock and thermometer, every process is controlled. You will always find in BUDWEISER that matchless bouquet that is the envy of all brewers. BUDWEISER is always rich in the flavor of the pick of each year's barley crop. Always BUDWEISER lives up to its age-old reputation—the one beer that sets itself brilliantly apart from all others. The very first sip tells all who try it why the world-wide demand for BUDWEISER built the world's largest brewery.

Backers of Guffey Study Measures Now Bill Encouraged by Awaiting Action of Roosevelt's Plans State Legislature

Strict Regulatory Bill for Large Part of Program Will Be Junked in Rush to Complete Business

Washington—(AP)—Word from influential Democratic leaders that President Roosevelt had added the Guffey coal stabilization bill to his legislative "must" list brought encouragement to supporters of the measure today but Senator Guffey (D-Pa.), the author, declined to comment.

Instead, he plunged at once into conferences with attorneys engaged in revising the bill in the light of the supreme court's NRA decision and strove to reach an agreement on the changes.

Guffey, the United Mine Workers of America and many managing heads of the $11,000,000,000 industry publicly have pinned their hopes of averting a strike of 450,000 coal miners June 17 on enactment of the bill.

As originally drafted, the bill would provide for strict governmental regulation of the bituminous coal industry. It would have set up a national coal commission within the interior department vested with broad powers to fix prices and allocate production.

A legislative committee of coal operators, however, eliminated the production control feature, leaving that matter to be worked out by the commission. They also struck out a provision for creation of a national coal reserve through retirement of marginal coal lands.

The latter clause, modeled closely upon the recommendation of the president's national resources board, was believed in some quarters to be one for which Guffey would hold out.

Another provision which has attracted considerable interest since nullification of NRA's code structure by the supreme court was that employing a "compliance tax."

The bill prescribed a 25 per cent tax on the market price at the mine of all bituminous coal produced in the United States. Operators who agreed to comply with provisions of the act, however, would be entitled to a 99 per cent credit.

Officials of the Illinois State Teachers' Association claim the distributive fund is more than $7,000,000 in arrears and there are bills, already passed by the senate, pending in the house to make up the claimed deficit.

The Association is also asking that the distributive fund be increased to $30,000,000 annually and petitions to that effect will be given Governor Horner tomorrow.

Party leaders, however, have expressed the opinion that such action should be delayed until the Stuttle report is made, even though a special session would be required to do so.

Disabled Veterans Of State to Meet

Big Convention Scheduled at Hospital Reopening in Danville, Ill.

The 14th Annual State Convention of the Department of Illinois, Disabled American Veterans of the World War, will be held in Danville, Ill., June 7, 8, 9, 1935 on the occasion of the re-opening of the huge veterans hospital in Danville this month.

The new hospital, which was formerly the National Soldiers Home, will accommodate 1850 patients, and is surrounded by a beautifully landscaped 250 acre tract.

Major Hamlet C. Ridgway, Illinois State Commander of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, will preside at the Convention. Illinois officials, including Hon. Henry Horner, governor, John Stille, state treasurer, Edward J. Barrett, state auditor, and Gen. John V. Clinch, secretary of the State Civil Service Commission, will be in attendance.

Col. Hugh Scott, manager of Edward Hines Jr. Hospital, Hines, Ill., Charles N. Neal, state commander of the United Spanish War Veterans, Amos M. Sharp, state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Arthur J. (Jack) Poorman, past state commander of the American Legion and representatives of other patriotic organizations in Illinois will be present.

Many problems of principal employment and government benefits, which concern all veterans, will be discussed and recommendations drafted. A monster parade and patriotic demonstration is being planned for Saturday afternoon, June 8th by the veteran organizations of Danville. It will be followed by a banquet at the Wolcott Hotel, where the convention sessions will be held.

The city is prepared to care for hundreds of visitors from all parts of the state. Mayor Frank P. Meyer of Danville has presented to the veterans the key of the city, and has proclaimed a city wide observance in their honor.

Springfield, Ill.—(AP)—Legislative leaders today were scanning the more than 1,600 pending bills to determine what ones are worth salvaging in the few days and night time sine die adjournment will be taken.

It is likely that they together with representatives of the administration, will compile a "must list" in the next few days and that attention will be given to none except these bills in the concluding sessions.

Included in the "must list" will be the essential appropriation bills, a number of which are yet in committee, as well as several measures desired by the administration and a few wanted by the federal government.

School legislation, except of an emergency nature, apparently has little chance of being acted on. The Stuttle Education Commission has not reported and there is a disposition on the part of leaders to do nothing on such legislation until it has. Some step may be taken, however, to appropriate a few million dollars for the distributive fund in excess of the usual $10,500,000 annual fund although the exact amount has not been agreed upon.

Wedding of Sixty Years Ago Recalled

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Huffaker were Married in 1875 in Morgan County

Many Jacksonville citizens and others in this vicinity are acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Huffaker who celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary at their country home near New Berlin on Sunday, June 2nd. For many years Mr. Huffaker has been interested in extensive farming and stock raising. He is known as one of the few remaining cattlemen of the post pioneer days.

Mr. and Mrs. Huffaker were united in marriage at eight o'clock on the evening of June 2nd, 1875 at Waverly, Illinois; Dr. A. C. McCoy performing the ceremony. During the early portion of that day it rained but cleared as the hour of the evening wedding approached. Dr. McCoy was at that time pastor of the Methodist church in Waverly and had been previously identified with the institution which is now MacMurray college.

Mrs. Huffaker recalls that during the evening following the wedding some of the young people, who were more "worldly" than others began to dance, and she began to weep for she with many others felt they were disgraced by such action in a Christian home. It may be stated emphatically that Mr. and Mrs. Huffaker are loyal young in spirit by their love of and association with young people. Their home is noted for its cordial hospitality and they are revered and loved by a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Huffaker are loyal members of the Central Christian church of Jacksonville.

HORSE LEAVES LOCAL ATTORNEY ON ROAD, AND GALLOPS HOME

Early rising citizens Tuesday morning saw a riderless horse galloping madly west fully saddled and bridled, and down West College avenue. The onlookers who saw the mare wondered what had happened to her rider. Some came to the conclusion that Attorney William N. Hairgrove had come to some bad luck, as he is practically the only morning horseback rider in the city.

Later in the day Judge Hairgrove was contacted and appeared none the worse for the adventure he related. While riding along the road at the northeast corner of the fair grounds, the attorney reached for his grandkerchief and left the reins slack. Something frightened the mare at that moment, and she whirled about, causing her rider to tumble to the ground. Mr. Hairgrove was unhurt.

The mare did not wait to see what had happened to the rider, but left for home on a gallop. When the attorney caught an auto ride and was taken to the Carter barn, he found the horse there first.

Four Houses Were Here; One Left

Where this torrent raged along a Pueblo, Colo., street, four brick residences stood, but only this one reeling on the brink of swollen Fountain creek remained after the fury of the flood had been spent here and rivers rushed eastward to take a toll of more than 100 lives and cause property damage far above $10,000,000. One room was ripped from this home and the attic roof left perilously jutting over the stream.

HEAR EVIDENCE IN DAMAGE SUIT HERE TUESDAY

Waverly Man Asks $10,000 Damages: To Continue Hearing Today

After hearing a number of the plaintiff's witnesses in the suit of J. Waverly of Waverly against William E. Swift, also of Waverly, circuit court was adjourned here early yesterday afternoon, and the case will be resumed this morning. A collision between the Swift ambulance and an automobile forms the basis for the suit. It is alleged.

The plaintiff claims his wife, Mrs. Ethel Leona Earley, died as the result of neck and injuries suffered while enroute to a hospital in the ambulance.

Early, as administrator of his wife's estate, is suing William E. Swift, Waverly funeral and ambulance service director, for $10,000. He contends that Mrs. Earley's death resulted from the collision, and not from pneumonia from which she had been suffering.

The suit has attracted considerable interest and a number of Waverly citizens were in court to testify and listen to the evidence.

The collision between the Swift ambulance and a car driven by a Springfield man occurred on the evening of Nov. 18, 1934, at South Grand avenue and Second street in Springfield. Swift and a driver were in the front seat; Mrs. Earley was in the rear, accompanied by her husband and mother-in-law.

It is alleged by the complainant that the impact threw his wife from the car; this is denied by the defense. The ambulance halted at the scene of the accident and then went on to St. John's hospital where Mrs. Earley became a patient. She died there Nov. 27.

Deny Negligence

While the complainant charges that negligence of the ambulance driver and injuries caused Mrs. Earley's death, the defense contends there was no negligence and that the collision did not contribute to her demise.

Opening statements were made Tuesday morning by Oscar J. Puttling of Springfield for the complainant, who with James M. Barnes represented Early. Defense attorneys are Walter Bellotti who made the opening statement and Levitt Arnold.

Bellotti in his statement of the case pointed out that Mrs. Earley been ill from a gallstone attack on Nov. 11 last year, developed pneumonia on Nov. 14 and was in a critical condition before the start of the trip to the hospital.

A number of witnesses will be heard including physicians and persons associated with the woman's removal to the hospital. Court was adjourned early yesterday afternoon so Judge Wright could attend funeral services for Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, and trial of the case will be completed Wednesday.

Jurors are William Cleary, Fred Runkle, Ernest May, Stacy Calvin, Thomas Antle, Otto G. Wood, T. B. Buchanan, M. J. Benscoter, E. R. Embrough, H. C. Stevenson, L. C. Collins and Arlo Schumacher.
